Marriage Licenses Issued.
Marshall A. Holmes to Ada Freeland, April 30.

Forty acres of improved land located one mile south of Ontario was sold at sheriff's sale at Vale Saturday at the price of $112.50 per acre. The land formerly belonged to D. McGill and was purchased by Dick De Armond, a stockman living west of Vale.

The order of the K. P. lodge went to Vale Thursday night in the new jitney to attend a meeting held in that city, but a little hard luck overtook the party, as previous rains had damaged the roads, and the car never reached Vale until midnight. The party came back on the train the following morning.

PEACE CONGRESS AT THE HAGUE ENDS

The Hague.—All neutral countries will be invited to take steps for a conference at which they can offer continuous mediation to the warring European nations and also to invite suggestions from the belligerents themselves as to the most reasonable proposals for a basis for peace.

This, in effect, is about all that the Women's International Conference accomplished. The closing session was very turbulent.

In its official manifesto which was written by Miss Fearn Andrews, the congress recommends the holding of world wide mass meetings for the purpose of influencing the press. The brochure calling for a conference of neutrals and continued mediation without an armistice was introduced by Miss Wales of the University of Wisconsin.

The congress agreed to have the international convention name two delegates from each country to arrange for another and more representative congress to be held simultaneously with the next Hague conference.

TRAVELERS WARNED BY GERMAN EMBASSY

Washington.—In an official notice published by the German embassy in many important cities of the eastern part of the United States, Americans were warned anew that the travel on ships flying the flags of Germany's enemies was at their own risk.

While the notice was regarded among officials and diplomatists here as nothing more than a reiteration of Germany's first warning given when the war zone about the British Isles was announced, there was much interest in whether it foreshadowed increased activity of German submarines or possibly had to do with movements of the German fleet, which has been variously reported of late as cruising in the North Sea.

Embassy officials in explaining the publication emphasized that it was intended as a warning to travelers and that the embassy had acted in accordance with its general instructions from the Berlin Foreign Office.

CHINA REFUSES MAIN JAPANESE DEMANDS

(Special to the Argus)

Pekin.—China has replied to the Japanese demands in a note which, while complying with some of the demands, definitely refuses to accede to others, including the most important, embodied in what is known as Group V.

China also has furnished to the Japanese minister, Eki Hiroki, a list of further concessions which she is willing to grant, but after perusing the note and the list M. Hiroki declared that it was far from complying with the 24 demands as presented by Japan.

The list of Chinese concessions is in the nature of counter-proposals. China asks the right to participate in an international conference in which the altered status of Shan-Tung will be re-arranged; indemnity for the losses incurred in consequence of the Tsing-Tau campaign and also restoration of its status as before the war. These three requests are repeated from China's original counter-proposals.

Group V comprises seven articles relating to the employment by China of Japanese as advisers in political, financial and military affairs; supervision of the Chinese police; the right of Japanese ownership of land; Japanese supervision over the manufacture or purchase by China of munitions of war, various railway and mining rights and the right by the Japanese to propagate Buddhism in China.

The conference terminated without the Japanese nor Chinese asking for another meeting. Should the Japanese government now present an ultimatum or occupy further territory in China, it is intimated that the Chinese probably would appeal to the four powers which are pledged to China's independence.

GOOD ROADS DAY SET BY GOVERNOR

(Special to The Argus.)

Salem.—Declaring that good roads are prime foundations upon which our prosperity is builded, that he is firmly convinced that road improvements are the wisest investment Oregon can make, and that better roads are beneficial because they promote social community development and increase civic pride, besides being beneficial from a commercial standpoint and advertising the state to the visitor, Governor Withycombe has issued a proclamation designating Thursday, May 20, as good roads day.

The governor declares that it is highly desirable to encourage interest in good roads and to foster in every way possible a state wide enthusiasm and he calls upon all forward-looking citizens of the state to devote their energies on May 20 to personal improvement of the roads in their locality and to cooperate, one with the other, in working out road betterment plans.

Business is improving

Washington.—General improvement in business conditions with "returning confidence" is announced in the federal reserve board's digest of reports of agents in the reserve districts into which the country is divided.

From the New York district general improvement, with optimism in New York City, is reported.

The Chicago district report shows improvement, though not pronounced outside of those lines profiting by war orders.
